ARMY TRANSPORT

(From Wednesday's Advertiser) With her guard rails packed with men in khaki and her hurricane deck crowded with the brave officers and fair ladies of the service the United States Army Transport Thomas docked at Naval Wharf No. 1 about five o'clock yesterday afternoon, twenty days from Ma-nila via Nagasaki. The big vessel was sighted about three o'clock and after inspection came in immediately and

The Thomas was well loaded. Beside the one hundred and forty-one passengers there were 304 enlisted men from the toth, 38th, 85th and 108th companies of Coast Artillery; 368 enlisted men from various commands; eighty discharge soldiers and employees; eighteen marines and thirty-eight prisoners—a total of and thirty-eight prisoners—a total of 949 exclusive of the crew. Among the civilian passengers were C. F. Stone, editor of the Manila Times; P. G. McDonnell and Frederick W. Unger, war correspondents from Nagasaki, and the family of Judge F. N. Powell of the Philippine Civil Government.

The owners of the Thomas was very

The voyage of the Thomas was very uneventful. She sailed from Manila June 15 and left Nagasaki on the morning of June 22. She was ready to leave on the evening of the 21st but the harbor is mined and the lights extinguished and vessels are not allowed to enter or de-part in the night. The Thomas was preceded in and out of the harbor by a government pilot steamer. As soon as the steamer docked a large number of men were given shore liberty and proceeded to see the town. They seemed very glad to get on terra firma again. The transport sails at 4 p. m. today for San Francisco. She will carry from Honolulu Capt. McKay Williamson, former depot quartermaster, U. S. A., who has had charge of the quartermaster's department here for the past two years, Capt. Williamson goes to San Francisco for reassignment. Capt. Hum-phrey has assumed full charge of the

"I do not think it will be clos-ed at once," he said, "although it is a losing proposition to keep it open. It costs more to keep it in order than it brings in. Its abandonment will mean considerable financial loss. Every stall in the new markets is taken. They are nearer the homes of the fish consuming population but it was very little more trouble to go to the old market." The ultimate disposition of the old market has not been decided upon.
